Las Vegas Global Wine Awards Announces Winners

Las Vegas, Nev. – The Las Vegas Global Wine Awards has announced their lineup of winners from the April 9-11 competition held at the Palace Station Hotel & Casino. Featuring some incredible selections from across the country and around the world, the Las Vegas Global Wine Awards' expert panel of judges selected 10 Double Gold Award winning wines as well as two Best in Show Awards. The complete list of winners can be found at: <https://www.vegaswineawards.com/awards/>. The Best in Show Red comes from the Rodney Strong Vineyards with a stunning Sonoma County Merlot. The Best in Show White category was an outstanding Fiano from Oak Farm Vineyards in Lodi California.

“The turnout was spectacular and the submissions this year were beyond anything we thought possible,” said Eddie Rivkin, President of the Las Vegas Global Wine Awards. “The elegance of the wines and the outstanding panel of judges made the event one of the finest we have ever had.”
